We have a very tight schedule for judging, appearances, and volunteering. As a contestant, you must fully commit to the duties of the queen competition. Even if you are not selected as the queen, you are still required to participate in Kid's Day, selling raffle tickets, and other volunteer opportunities. The fair depends on the girls to help out with these events as the money raised benefits our scholarships. This competition can be a very meaningful experience for our Lee County Fair Queen and the contestants, but only if they fully participate. Only emergencies can justify not participating in our fair events and must be approved by our queen committee.
